

TENUTA
NATALINA GRANDI

Tradizione Vulcanica

GAMBELLARA
CLASSIC D.O.C.

|                        |                                                                                                                         |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Vitigno (vine)  | Garganega 100%                                                                                                          |
| Type            | Still White Wine                                                                                                        |
| Production area | 300 metres s.l.m. - Monte di Mezzo(hilly area, volcanic terrain)                                                    |
| Scents          | Mineral and persistent, light notesbalsamic myrtle, sage and rosemarywith almond finish and agingin tonneau |
| Pairing         | Baccalà alla vicentina, white meats,barbecue, risotto, medium cheesesaging                                      |
| Alcohol content | 12,5 %                                                                                                                  |
| Farming method  | Double Veronese pergola                                                                                                 |
| Vinification    | Working in a small steel tankto extract more intense aromas                                                         |
| Year            | 2017                                                                                                                    |
| Harvest         | Manual and selected in 200 kg boxes                                                                                     |
| Market entry    | 11/2018                                                                                                                 |
| Aging           | Sosta di sette mesi sui lieviti in botte grande                                                                         |
| Yeasts          | Selected                                                                                                                |
| Total acidity   | 6,10 g/l                                                                                                                |
| Sugary residue  | 4,70 g/l                                                                                                                |

TENUTA NATALINA GRANDI

Via Battagione Vicenza, 8 - 36053 GAMBELLARA (VI)
Tel. e Fax 0444 444102 - info@cantinagrandi.com - www.cantinagrandi.com